Please provide a summary of details for the research on employers and labor market trends for the careers explored (example: what was learned, what was done to explore each goal, VR Client's take away from each potential employment goal):

Potential Employment Goal #1: Human Services

Summary: Conducted detailed review and research of the necessary knowledge, skills, abilities, personality technology, education and job outlook for Human service Job. Identified a Job category I like to explore within the Human services as " Social & human services assistants". Utilized mynextmove.org, Indeed.com and www.azjobconnection.gov to help locate active local job postings and employers hiring for Social & human services assistants. Utilized the US Bureau of Labor Statistics to gather data on labor supply and demand, earnings, employment and unemployment statistics and job outlook for Social & human services assistants. Based on this research I learned that this field is growing and that I have the skill sets and knowledge to work in this field.

Potential Employment Goal #2: Marketing

Summary: Conducted detailed review and research of the necessary knowledge, skills, abilities, personality technology, education and job outlook under Marketing. Identified a job category to explore under Marketing as Advertising, Promotions, and Marketing Manager. Utilized mynextmove.org, Indeed.com and www.azjobconnection.gov to help locate active Advertising, Promotions, and Marketing Manager job postings and employers. Utilized the US Bureau of Labor Statistics to gather data on labor supply and demand, earnings, employment and unemployment statistics and job outlook for Advertising, Promotions, and Marketing Manager. After conducting the research I learned this field is growing; however I do not possess the appropriate educational requirements to work in this field and therefore I will need to go back to school to earn a Bachelor's degree in Marketing and Management.

Potential Employment Goal #3: Computers

Summary: Conducted detailed review and research of the necessary knowledge, skills, abilities, personality technology, education and job outlook for Computer jobs. Identified a Job category I like to explore while working with computers, as computer programmer. Utilized mynextmove.org, Indeed.com and www.azjobconnection.gov to help locate active local computer programmer job postings and employers. Utilized the US Bureau of Labor Statistics to gather data on labor supply and demand, earnings, employment and unemployment statistics and job outlook for Computer programmers. After conducting the research, I learned that this field is not growing, in fact its declining. I also learned that I do not possess the appropriate educational requirements to work in this field and therefore I will need to go back to school to earn a bachelor's degree in Computer Software Technology.
